

Pothole Nothole

This is where we will store all of the data. The data from the skateboard will be sent from to the server and the server will process the data to determine if a change in displacement is a pothole or not. If one is determined to be a pothole, the coordinates will be sent to this website.

This section will describe how the skateboard demonstration will work, how we will improve it for the future, etc.